Land & Labor Acknowledgement

Multnomah county rests on the stolen lands of the Multnomah, Kathlamet, and Clackamas Bands of Chinook Indian Nation; Tualatin Kalapuya; Molalla; and many others along the Columbia River.

This country is built on stolen Indigenous land and built by stolen African people. This land was not stolen and people were not enslaved by ambiguous entities and actors. The land was stolen by, and African peoples were enslaved by White settlers who had government support.

We also want to honor the members of over 400 tribal communities who live in Multnomah County. Many of these People and their cultures still survive and resist despite the intentional and ongoing attempts to destroy them.

Let us please take a moment of silence to acknowledge the history of how we are here in this place and to honor the People.

Planning: Continuum of Care (CoC)

The Continuum of Care Program is a U.S. Dept of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) mandate for all communities receiving HUD funding. The CoC is a broad group of stakeholders dedicated to providing safety on and off the streets to people experiencing homelessness and ending homelessness in Multnomah county represented by the CoC Board.

Formed through a collaboration of local jurisdictions: Multnomah County, City of Portland, City of Gresham, Home Forward & includes a Board of housing & health providers, business people, community members, and people with lived experience of homelessness.

The CoC Board and associated JOHS staff is responsible for submitting the annual Collaborative Application for HUD funding (NOFO) that brings in approximately $37 million of funding to the community.

Racial Equity Lens Tool

Equity-Mindedness: mode of thinking exhibited by practitioners who call attention to patterns of inequity.

Enhancing our Equity-Mindedness through the use of the Racial Equity Lens Tool.

Equity

- Where equality means providing the same to all, equity means recognizing that we do not all start from the same place and must acknowledge and make adjustments to imbalances.
- Equity recognizes that each person has different circumstances and allocates resources and opportunities needed to reach an equal outcome.
- The equity process is ongoing, requiring us to identify and overcome intentional and unintentional barriers arising from bias or systemic structures.

Why do we need equity?

Internalized racism lies within individuals. Private beliefs and biases about race and racism, influenced by our culture. This can take many different forms including: prejudice towards others of a different race; internalized oppression—the negative beliefs about oneself by people of color; or internalized privilege—beliefs about superiority or entitlement by white people.

Interpersonal racism (personally mediated) occurs between individuals. The bias that occurs when individuals interact with others and their personal racial beliefs affect their public interactions.

Institutional racism occurs within institutions and systems of power. Unfair policies and discriminatory practices of particular institutions (schools, workplaces, etc.) that routinely produce racially inequitable outcomes for people of color and advantages for white people. Individuals within institutions take on the power of the institution when they reinforce racial inequities.

Structural racism is racial bias among institutions and across society. The cumulative and compounding effects of an array of societal factors, including the history, culture, ideology and interactions of institutions and policies that systematically privilege white people and disadvantage people of color.

Racial Equity

The Government Alliance on Race and Equity (GARE) defines racial equity to mean that “we eliminate racial disproportionalities so that race can no longer be used to predict success, and we increase the success of all communities.”

Institutional Racial Equity

A process of eliminating racial disparities and improving outcomes for everyone. It is the intentional and continual practice of changing institutional policies, practices, systems, and structures by prioritizing measurable change in the lives of people of color.

Why does JOHS use a Racial Equity Lens Tool?

- A Racial Equity Lens Tool helps us see where challenges and opportunities exist. It allows us to take intentional steps to create the conditions for more equitable access to services for the individuals and communities we serve as well as a more equitable workplace.

What is a Racial Equity Lens Tool?

- A set of questions we ask ourselves when we are planning, developing or evaluating a policy, program or decision.
- Designed to integrate explicit consideration of racial equity in decisions, including policies, practices, programs, and budgets.
- Helps analyze the equitableness of an action and decision-making process. A racial equity lens tool will not tell you what action to take.

Why is a Racial Equity Lens Tool useful?

1. Use of a racial equity tool is an important step in operationalizing equity. The Racial Equity Lens Tool is an ongoing practice.
  - a. Routine use of a racial equity tool explicitly integrates racial equity into governmental operations. When racial equity is not explicitly brought into operations and decision-making, racial inequities are likely to be perpetuated.
  - b. It is an intentional intervention. Simply put this tool helps us be consistent with our equity work.

When do we use a Racial Equity Lens Tool?

- Use the racial equity lens tool early. In doing so, individual decisions can be aligned with organizational racial equity goals and desired outcomes.
- Use the racial equity lens tool more than once so that equity is incorporated throughout all phases, from development to implementation and evaluation.

How is a Racial Equity Lens Tool used?

E.g. Policy analysts integrating racial equity into policy development and implementation.

E.g. Business services, Equity Team and HR use the tool when creating internal processes.

E.g. Budget analysts integrating racial equity into budget proposals at the earliest possible phase, increases the likelihood of impact.

E.g. Program lead integrating racial equity into program selection and allocation processes, monitoring, and evaluation.

E.g. JOHS Advisory Bodies

Program Offers

- All County functions request funding through a program offer.
- Program offers allow decision-makers and the public to read and comprehend the budget.
- Program offers combine information on program descriptions, budgets, and performance data for a given set of services.
- A good program offer is easy to understand for someone unfamiliar with the program and will show the relationship between the program and the results it produces for the community.

Program Offers

- Department Submitted - Departments prepare program offers for the County Chair to consider funding as part of the Executive/Proposed Budget.
- Chair's decisions - Program offers that have been included (funded) in the FY 2024 Chair's Executive/Proposed Budget. Program offers may be revised or changed from when they were submitted as part of the Chair's Executive budget.
- Adopted - Program offers that are included (funded) in the County's Adopted Budget. This is the final stage of the budget process which creates the legally adopted budget.

Types of Program Offers

- In Target
  - Programs fit within existing budget
  - Can be Existing Programs or New Programs , that fit within target
- One Time Only
  - Request for one year funding of discrete activity
- Out of Target
  - A New Offer for new programming
  - An existing program, yet not previously funded by County

American Rescue Plan (ARP)

- In mid-March 2020, Congress passed the American Rescue Plan (ARP), providing resources to Multnomah County for response and recovery from the COVID-19.
- Legislation provided a direct allocation of $158 million to Multnomah County, paid in two tranches.
  - Funding limited in nature, and therefore planned to spend it over a two-year period.
  - The first tranche of ARP funding was included in the FY 2022 budget, and the remainder was budgeted in FY 2023.
  - The expectation is that departments have a plan to ramp down each program in FY 2023.
- For FY 2024 budget, the need for COVID-related services will not always neatly end at the FY 2023, so County will consider some out-of-target requests to extend ramp down services into FY 2024.
