

Information Session Note:

- Statements made by Multnomah County representative(s) at the information session are not binding upon the Counties unless confirmed by written Q&A.
- The purpose of the information session is to offer the prospective proposers an opportunity to ask questions and clarify allocation announcement content and instructions to ensure proposals submitted meet the criteria.
- To guarantee the most appropriate use of time, proposers are expected to review the allocation announcement before the information session. Questions regarding the project/proposal information will be discussed at the information session.
